War Council in Session

AMMAN, May 1 (AP)—A war council of five Arab states continued today to plan Palestine operations that King Abdullah predicted "will tighten the ring around the Jewish enemy."

The army chiefs of staff of Trans-Jordan, Syria, Iraq and Lebanon were joined for the first time by Col. Hafiz Bey Bakry, representing the Egyptian General Staff. He arrived last night. Egypt was not represented at the first meeting yesterday, which included the Premiers and Defense Ministers of the other four states.
