ISRAEL SCORES EGYPT ON SUEZ SHIP GRABS

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

TEL AVIV, Israel, May 27 (Delayed)—A spokesman for the State of Israel charged today that the Egyptian Government had intercepted four foreign ships at Suez Canel ports in the past week and confiscated all cargo consigned to Palestine. None of the material seized by Egypt was of military value, he said.

The spokesman, David Horowitz, Under-Secretary of the Treasury, called Egypt's action a "flagrant violation of international law." The seized cargoes, he said, were made up mostly of food supplies and had been consigned to private importers.

Mr. Horowitz, a former representative for the Jewish Agency at Lake Success, asserted Israel had no intention of paying Britain the $24,000,000 she had levied against the Jews of Palestine for transporting refugees to Cyprus and maintaining them there. This levy, he said, had been condemned by every commission concerned as contravening international law.

Mr. Horowitz further charged that during 1946 and 1947 Britain had used 12 to 20 per cent of the loan she received from the United States "in war against the Jews." Britain received $3,400,000,000 from the United States, he said, and spent $400,000,000 of it in Palestine.

The amount "does not include money spent returning refugees to Hamburg nor does it include the amount spent by the British in arming Arabs," he added.

Concerning Israel's own economy, Mr. Horowitz said, it was firmly grounded, the Palestine pound was fully backed and the Arab boycott against Jews had had no serious effect on the country except that it dislocated Arab Palestine's economy.
