and wounded three others in a raid last night. Another Israeli plane reportedly bombed the Arab center at Nablus, killing one Iraqi.

An Egyptian communiqué reported new air raids on Tel Aviv coastal defenses and declared that Egyptian anti-aircraft gunners had downed two Israeli aircraft near Isdud.

Legion Relieves Irregulars

CAIRO, Egypt, May 29 (UP)—Battle-hardened Arab regulars moved forward today to positions from which they might launch a three-pronged attack on Tel Aviv, capital of Israel and Palestine's largest Israeli city, sources in Trans-Jordan reported.

Trans - Jordan's mechanized legionnaires reportedly relieved Arab irregulars in Lydda, and Ramleh, eleven miles southeast of Tel Aviv, while Iraqi regulars advanced from Tulkarm to positions eighteen miles north of the Israeli capital.

The vanguard of Egypt's regular army was poised at El Majdal, thirty miles south of Tel Aviv, for the offensive that might mark the first major Arab drive into the new Israeli state.

Front-line reports said that Iraqi troops had occupied the Israeli settlement of Kfar Yona, four miles east of Nathanya and seven miles inside Israel's frontiers. The reported advance placed the Iraqi vanguard only a mile east of the coastal highway linking Tel Aviv with the great northern port of Haifa.

Reports from Ramallah, Legion base north of Jerusalem, said that Israeli aircraft had killed one Arab
