Israeli Forces Enter Lebanon
New York Times (1857-Current file); May 31, 1948; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 4

Israeli Forces Enter Lebanon

CAIRO, Egypt, May 30 (Æ)—The Israeli Army said that its troops had speared a mile and a half into Lebanese territory at Aitaroun.

Arab forces were cleared from Altaroun, the Israeli communiqué said, and Israeli units also hold the Lebanese army camp at the near-by border town of Malikia. Israeli planes raided the Lebanese towns of Bennt Jbail and Alama, the communiqué said.

Other Israeli forces attacked and destroyed two Syrian border police stations despite strong Arab resistance, the bulletin said. One was north of the Lahavot Habashan settlement and the other north of Shamir.

An Arab communiqué told of an engagement between Egyptian units and an Israeli armored column at Beerot Yitzhak, four miles southeast of Gaza.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.