Visited Two Capitals

CAIRO, Egypt, June 3 (AP)—Count Bernadotte made a flying trip to Amman and Tel Aviv, capitals of Trans-Jordan and Israel, in that order. He announced the trip after calling on Egyptian Premier Nokrashy Pasha. He made his first stop in Amman, conferring for ninety minutes with the Trans-Jordan Foreign Minister.

Count Bernadotte's job is to get agreement on a definite hour for the four weeks truce already accepted by the Jews and Arabs.

King Farouk of Egypt let it be known through a press representative that he agreed with King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan that Arab nations would never accept a Jewish state in Palestine.
