POLES APPROVE U.S. ENVOY

Waldemar J. Gallman Accepted as New Ambassador

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WARSAW, Poland, June 9 — Waldemar John Gallman, 49-year-old career diplomat from Wellsville, N. Y., has received Poland's acceptance as the new United States Ambassador to this country, the Foreign Office stated today. At present Mr. Gallman is minister-counsellor at the United States Embassy in London.

He will succeed Stanton Griffis, New York investment banker, who is scheduled to become United States Ambassador to Egypt.
