Orders Halting of Shipments to Israel at Beirut—Bernadotte Puts Off Trip to Amman

By The Associated Press.

CAIRO, June 11—The order to cease firing in Palestine was broadcast to Egyptian troops today at a few moments before the deadline 2 A. M., New York time.

Trans-Jordan troops had received a similar order earlier and presumably the four-weeks armistice arranged by the United Nations mediator, Court Folke Bernadotte, and agreed to by both Israel and the Arabs, brought a stop to the shooting at the appointed hour.
