Terms for Lasting Peace
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jun 17, 1948; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 19

Terms for Lasting Peace

CAIRO, June 16 (AP)—The Arab League indicated today that it was willing to participate in negotiations for a permanent Palestine settlement on condition that the United Nations partition plan is shelved.

Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator, said the league promised to send four experts on June 21 to his headquarters on the Island of Rhodes. He added: "These experts are just consultants who will help us in our work for a short period but will take no decisions."

Palestine's fighting fronts remained quiet on this sixth day of the four-week truce while Count Bernadotte conferred in Cairo with the Premiers of Egypt, Lebanon and Trans-Jordan and Abdul Rahman Azzam Pasha, the Arab League's secretary general.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.