Rhodes Talks Begin Tomorrow
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jun 20, 1948; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002) pg. 51

a violation outside Arab-held Nazareth.

In a report back to Haifa, the leader, United States Navy Comdr. H. D. Huxley, said that Arabs in the city and Israeli elements around it exchanged rifle fire for four hours yesterday.

He said the firing broke out when Arab civilians tried to harvest grain in the No Man's Land and the Israeli civilians objected that this violated the truce. One Arab woman and one child were wounded slightly, Commander Huxley reported.

Rhodes Talks Begin Tomorrow

CAIRO, Egypt, June 19 (AP)—Arab and Israeli delegations are expected to reach Rhodes Monday to confer with Count Bernadotte.

Count Bernadotte got back to that Greek Mediterranean island yesterday from a flying trip to Cairo and Tel Aviv on which he invited them to Rhodes for peace talks.

Both sides agreed to send expert consultants only.

A United States-French United Nations truce team today reported

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.