Abdullah Sees Farouk
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jun 25, 1948; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 11

achieved by the fact that the Zionist state there will not be established."

"I hope the Western world will appreciate the importance of the Arab East in the world balance," Abdullah said. "This world balance will not be stabilized as long as the Arab East is weak."

Abdullah said his talks with Farouk concerned "consolidating the policy of the Arab League" toward "maintaining the full Arabism of Palestine."

Abdullah Sees Farouk

CAIRO, June 24 (AP)—King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan, who came here Tuesday from Amman, left on the return plane trip today after talking with King Farouk of Egypt.

In a news conference just before his departure, he said the Arabs would turn down any solution of the Palestine problem that would rob them of their sovereignty over the Holy Land. He said they were "determined to end this tension and continue the struggle until their safety in Palestine is Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.