while it had been agreed that United Nations planes would not fly over Egyptian territory at less than 2,000 feet.

Egypt Offers Explanation

CAIRO, Egypt, June 25 (AP) — Prime Minister Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrashy Pasha of Egypt told reporters tonight that an Egyptian pilot opened fire against a United Nations plane in Palestine this morning because "he suspected it was an enemy plane."

The pilot's suspicion, Nokrashy Pasha added, was aroused by the fact that the United Nations plane had been flying at 500 feet altitude
