Egypt Denies Convoy Accord
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jun 27, 1948; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 12

Egypt Denies Convoy Accord

CAIRO, Egypt, June 26 (AP)—Egyptian Prime Minister Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrashy Pasha told correspondents in Cairo last night that his Government would reply today to protests on both incidents submitted by Count Bernadotte, the United Nations Mediator.

These incidents were the blocking of an Israeli food convoy for settlements in the Negeb and the strafing of a United Nations observer plane.

The Premier said of the convoy protest:

"Egyptian authorities informed truce officials on the evening of June 23 that they did not agree to granting the convoy permission to pass through. The Egyptian Government never thought this would be construed as a violation of the truce."

[On Friday the Premier attributed the strafing of a United Nations observer plane to a "mistake." He said the Egyptian pilot had taken the plane for an Israeli craft.]

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.