NEW TRUCE BREACH CHARGED TO EGYPT
By GENE CURRIVANSpecial to THE NEW YORK TIMES.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jun 27, 1948; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 12

NEW TRUCE BREACH CHARGED TO EGYPT

Israel Alleges Night Attack on Colony in South—Cairo Disavows Convoy Accord

By GENE CURRIVAN
Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

TEL AVIV, Israel, June 26—The Israeli Government charged today that the Egyptians had attacked Kfar Darom settlement below Gaza. It was not a large-scale attack and no further details were received here.

This further charge against the Egyptians was made after it had been learned that Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations Mediator, had asked the Egyptians to explain their alleged dual violation of the Palestine truce in the Negeb yesterday.

As far as can be determined here, the food convoy that was prevented from going through the Egyptian lines yesterday has made no attempt to proceed and is awaiting the outcome of Count Bernadotte's request to the Egyptians.

All other fronts appeared to be quiet except the political front, where the Stern group came up from the underground and held its first mass meeting here. The speeches followed anti-government lines, accusing the administration of following in the footsteps of the British "oppressors."

Tel Aviv looked like a normal seaside resort today, with thousands promenading but few on the beach. The Irgunist ship that beached itself in trying to bring in the arms cargo has finally cooled down after having burned four days. It is now a charred hulk.

Food convoys are still going to Jerusalem under United Nations sponsorship and the shops here are full of people making large purchases for their friends and relatives there.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.