Egypt's Foreign Minister Said to Quit Over Sudan

By The Associated Press.

CAIRO, Egypt, June 27—Reliable sources said today Egyptian Foreign Minister Ahmed Mohammed Khashaba Pasha had resigned over the question of the Sudan. He did not attend tonight's meeting of the Council of Ministers.

Khashaba Pasha had approved personally a draft agreement with Sir Ronald Campbell, British Ambassador here, on Anglo-Egyptian administration of the Sudan. The Council of Ministers rejected the draft.

The Egyptian Government has been calling for union of the entire Nile valley under the Egyptian crown. This would mean an end of the joint rule by Egypt and Britain which has existed in the Sudan since 1899.

Prime Minister Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrashy Pasha was reported taking over the Foreign Ministry.
