Arabs Bar Acceptance

CAIRO, Egypt, June 29 (AP)—A reliable Arab source said tonight that Count Folke Bernadotte's proposals for a Palestine settlement "imply the existence of a Jewish state, which the Arabs could never accept."

Abdul Rahman Azzam Pasha, the League's secretary general, said discussion of Count Bernadotte's proposals was postponed pending the arrival of Lebanese and Iraqi delegates.

Jamil Mardam Bey, Syrian Prime Minister, meanwhile told correspondents that the Arab Governments have protested to Britain against evacuation of her troops from Haifa ahead of schedule. Mardam Bey said this was considered a violation of the Palestine truce by the Arabs.

A high Arab official indicated today that the Arab states would not react favorably to a request for an extension of the Palestine truce to continue peace talks.

Meanwhile, the Syrian Premier said his Government was not sure whether a warship that allegedly
