KING FAROUK CALLED NAZI COLLABORATOR
Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jun 30, 1948; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002) pg. 8

KING FAROUK CALLED NAZI COLLABORATOR

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., June 29 —Freda Kirchwey, president of the Nation Associates, today submitted to Secretary General Trygve Lie and to President Truman a memorandum charging that King Farouk of Egypt, whose forces invaded the Negeb after the termination of the British mandate on May 15, collaborated with the Nazis during the war.

Included in the memorandum were photostatic copies of documents said to have been captured from the Nazi Ministry of Foreign Affairs. These proved, Miss Kirchwey charged:

"(1) Farouk's alliance with the Nazi High Command and of his acquiescence in Nazi plans to convey him to a secret hiding place during the war on the trumped-up charge that the British were planning to assassinate him.

"(2) His authorization to supply the Nazi High Command with documented information of a military nature designed to destroy the Allied armies in North Africa."

According to the report, the King told the agent that "the rumors which were being circulated about a rapprochement between him and the democracies were nothing else but a matter of political expediency and shrewdness, necessary for the then prevailing circumstances."

Miss Kirchwey gave also what she said was a Luftwaffe memorandum, dated March 30, 1944, saying that "the Grand Mufti has already repeatedly proposed bomb attacks on Tel Aviv and Jerusalem in order to injure Palestinian Jewry and for propaganda purposes in the Arab world" but that the proposal had been rejected the preceding year by Hermann Goering, the head of the Luftwaffe.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.