radically throughout south, central and northern Palestine today.

The Egyptian Defense Ministry issued a communiqué here tonight saying that 325 Israeli soldiers had been killed in military operations undertaken by the Egyptian Army, Saudi Arabian troops and Sudanese volunteers during the first day of renewed warfare.

Attacks were launched, the communiqué said, on points occupied by the Israeli forces during the truce period on the southern Palestine front. These points were recaptured, the communiqué said. It added that Egyptian planes raided Aqir airport and Tel Aviv Harbor. Aqir is fifteen miles southeast of Tel Aviv.

Iraqis Launch Air Blow

Haifa dispatches said Iraqi troops and planes attacked an Israeli position in the arc north of Jenin in northern Palestine.

The Israeli Army and air force attacked irregular Arab forces of Fawzi el Kawukji in the Nazareth district, Haifa reports said, and strong Syrian concentrations of men and armor gathered for an expected "major attack" in the Mishmar hay Yarden wedge near Lake Hule on the eastern Palestine border.

Haifa's alert ended a few minutes after it was sounded. The sirens sounded forty-five minutes after Count Bernadotte had left for Rhodes.

Israeli mortars opened up on the Arab-held Old City of Jerusalem. The heavy guns of the Arab Legion of King Abdullah withheld their answering fire while legionnaires deployed toward the Israeli-held modern section of the Holy City.
