Highway Battle Continues
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jul 15, 1948; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 14

Israeli-held Mount Zion, which is a threat to the Arab left flank.

The United States Consulate in Jerusalem was reported tonight to have been hit by two mortar shells. No one was injured and damage was slight, the reports said.

Tel Aviv had four air-raid alarms. A number of bombs were dropped. Two settlements south of Tel Aviv also were bombed.

In the south, an Israeli commando attack in the Negba area destroyed half of an Egyptian company, Israeli sources said.

Highway Battle Continues

CAIRO, Egypt, July 14 (AP)—A decisive battle for Jerusalem appeared to be shaping up today around Latrun where the Arabs have plugged Israeli supply roads to the Holy City.

Israeli forces were pressing an offensive from the coastal plain in an effort to pry loose the Trans-Jordan Arab Legion's grip on the Latrun bottleneck. But legion artillery still dominated this area.

In the Holy City itself, Arab Legion and Trans-Jordan tribal riflemen, supported by the Legion's heavy artillery, began a fight for Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.