Egypt Is Bombed Again
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jul 17, 1948; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 4

Egypt Is Bombed Again

CAIRO, Egypt, July 16 (AP)—An Arab Legion communiqué today said that an Israeli attack on Bab el Wad, on the important Jerusalem-Tel Aviv highway, was repulsed. It said the Israeli forces left eighty-seven dead on the battlefield. The communiqué added that Legion forces had captured the villages of Beer Maain, Elberg and Qula, north of Beit Naballa in the Lydda area.

Israeli aircraft bombed Egypt again today attacking the Tel el'Arish air base near the Palestine frontier. The Israeli Government also announced that the new Egyptian air attacks were made on the Tel Aviv area. Israeli fliers bombed Cairo for the first time last night.

The Cairo bombing brought out hordes of angry Moslem Brotherhood demonstrators who menaced Jewish shops and tried to march, 1,000-strong, down Al-Azhar Street in the commercial district. Police broke up the march.

From Haifa, dispatches said that Israeli units had overcome Arab resistance at Tira, just south of Haifa. This dispatch said the action at Tira had wiped out the last Arab threat to the Israeli supply line between the big port city and Tel Aviv.

Israeli authorities issued an official denial of Arab reports that Arab forces had recaptured the Jewish settlement of Sejera on the Nazareth-Tiberias road.

A Lebanese communiqué said fighting was heavy in western Galilee in a fight for Shajara colony, and that the battle was entering its final phase.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.