bombers took off to raid Tel Aviv shortly after the Israeli plane bombed Cairo last night. This morning Egyptian planes were again over Tel Aviv.

Egypt Orders Blackout

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

CAIRO, Egypt, July 16—A partial blackout throughout Egypt was ordered by the Egyptian Ministry of Interior tonight following last night's raid on Cairo by a single Israeli plane.

Street lights were turned off in Cairo tonight and shops and public places were ordered to darken their neon and other outside lights. In the event of air raid sirens being sounded, the Ministry ordered that all lights, even inside houses, must go off.

The Ministry of National Defense announced that Egyptian

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.