CAIRO MOB STONES AMERICAN TO DEATH
Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jul 20, 1948; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 9

CAIRO MOB STONES AMERICAN TO DEATH

Philadelphian's Wife Injured —Tension in Mideast Rises Over Arab Assent to Truce

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WASHINGTON, July 19—Stephen Haas of Philadelphia, a naturalized citizen of the United States, was stoned to death yesterday by a mob in Cairo, the State Department announced today. Jefferson Patterson, United States chargé d'affaires, has made strong representations to the Egyptian Government.

Mr. Haas and his wife were attacked by a mob near the Cairo citadel. Some of his Egyptian companions and a British family were badly hurt. It was said Mrs. Haas was roughly handled, but her injuries were not serious.

It is understood that hostility to foreigners in Egypt has been increasing. It has been asserted that foreign visitors turned lights on during air raids.

A former real estate man, Mr. Haas was apparently a tourist in Cairo. He was born in Hungary in 1895. He was a member of the B'nai B'rith and was well known in Jewish circles in Philadelphia.

STONED IN EGYPT

Mrs. Stephen Haas
Associated Press Wirephoto

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.