U.N. Views Outbreaks Calmly
By THOMAS J. HAMILTONSpecial to THE NEW YORK TIMES.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jul 20, 1948; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 8

U. N. Views Outbreaks Calmly

By THOMAS J. HAMILTON
Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., July 19 —Despite the continuance of fighting in Palestine, qualified sources here viewed the situation calmly tonight. They pointed out that the earlier truce had not taken hold completely for several days.

Count Bernadotte suggested last week that the Council give him authority to fix the effective date after consultation with both sides, but this was overruled.

The replies to the Security Council's truce order, made public today, said that Abdul Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary general of the Arab League, together with four of the seven members of the league, Egypt, Lebanon, Syria and Trans-Jordan, had reported that orders had been issued to cease fire yesterday at 11 A. M. (Eastern daylight time).

[A Syrian communiqué indicated that the Syrian order had gone out later.]

The brief cable from Azzam Pasha said merely that "the Arab states members of the Arab League issued orders to cease-fire in Palestine as from Sunday, 18 July, at 3 G. M.T. [Greenwich Mean Time], "and did not mention the three truce conditions announced by the league in its earlier reply.

The Israeli Government has insisted that it will not agree to restrictions on the admission of immigrants of military age, although apparently it would continue to accept regulations by Count Bernadotte to make sure they were not mobilized or received military training.

Both sides had made reservations or stipulations to the earlier request for a cease-fire, but the Security Council ruled that they had accepted unconditionally and gave Count Bernadotte authority to work out the terms on the spot. Similar procedure is expected to be followed now.

Attention here was concentrated on the re-establishment and expansion of the supervisory machinery. The United States and France each are scheduled to supply 150 military observers and Belgium fifty. Thirty-one each were provided before.

Uncertainty continued on how the 1,000 to 1,500 volunteers for assuring the demilitarization of Jerusalem would be raised. A United Nations spokesman said no move had been made here to recruit them.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.