Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WASHINGTON, July 20—Mahmoud Fohmy Nokrashy Pasha, the Egyptian Prime Minister, has given assurance to Jefferson Patterson, the United States Charge d'Affaires, that those responsible for the stoning to death in Cairo of Stephen Haas of Philadelphia will be punished, the State Department said today.

The assurances were given when Mr. Patterson called on the Foreign Minister to protest the attack. It was said that the Egyptian authorities believed three intoxicated men were responsible.

The incident also was discussed here today by Joseph Sattherthwaite, director of the Office of Near Eastern Affairs, with Anis Azek, the Egytpian Charge d'Affaires, who was summoned to the State Department for that purpose. The results of the discussion were not disclosed.
