Arab States Study Levy On Jews to Aid Refugees
Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jul 29, 1948; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 7

Arab States Study Levy On Jews to Aid Refugees

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

CAIRO, Egypt, July 28—The newspaper Al Ahram reported today that the Arab League states were studying a plan to raise funds needed for the care of refugees from Palestine by imposing a levy upon Jewish-owned property in the Arab states.

In Egypt a project has been under consideration for some time to use sequestrated Jewish-owned property to help repair bomb and other war damage inflicted by Israeli forces. The property sequestrated is that of Jews interned as Zionists.

The Egyptian Government has received an appeal from King Abdullah, addressed to the entire Islamic and Oriental world for funds to succor 200,000 Arab refugees in Trans-Jordan and the parts of Palestine occupied by the Arab Legion.

Thus far the Egyptian Government has contributed £30,000 [Egyptian] to the Trans-Jordan Government for refugees and has allocated an initial sum of £5,000 for refugees from Lydda and Ramleh.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.