Egyptians Attack Convoy

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

CAIRO, Egypt, July 29 — Authoritative Egyptian sources said today that the Egyptian Army yesterday repulsed an Israeli convoy attempting to break through Egyptian lines to supply Jewish settlements in the Negeb, south of Beersheba. Local sources said heavy losses were inflicted on the convoy.

The Egyptian Government was expected to protest to Count Bernadotte against the Israeli convoy move but Dr. Pablo Ascarate, the Mediator's representative in Cairo, said tonight that no protest had yet been received.
