IRAQIS RIOT OVER EGYPT

Police and Students Clash After Meetings in Support of Cairo

BAGHDAD, Iraq, Jan. 27 (AP)—Police and students clashed in several parts of Baghdad today after mass meetings by three political parties had demanded "unity with the Egyptian people in the fight against foreign rulers."

The mass meetings were called by the National Democratic, United National Front and Independence parties to celebrate the fourth anniversary of the defeat of the Portsmouth Treaty.

It was four years ago that Saleh Bey al Sahr resigned as Premier after twenty-four hours of riots protesting his signing of a treaty of friendship and mutual defense with Britain. Seventy persons were killed and 300 wounded in the riots.
