5 More Bodies Recovered

CAIRO, Egypt, Jan. 29 (AP)—Premier Aly Maher Pasha's new Government kept a tight rein under martial law today and tried to ease Egypt back to order and quiet.

Five more bodies were recovered from the charred ruins of the Turf Club and Shepheard's Hotel, both of which were burned.

Two bodies were picked up in the Turf Club, where eleven died. So far nine Britons are reported to have been killed, only three of them identified.

Business sources estimated Saturday's damage at more than $287,000,000.
