Bomb Explodes Harmlessly

ISMAILIA, Egypt, Feb. 2 (Reuters)—A bomb planted by Egyptian terrorists exploded outside the British military hospital at Tel el Kebir late last night but did no damage.

British headquarters also reported that Egyptian guerrillas in a jeep fired on the last vehicle of a British truck convoy on the canal road late last night. No one was hurt.

Telephone communications between British headquarters here and Cairo, restored yesterday after nearly three weeks, were disrupted again today.
