Egypt Accepts Bid Terms

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—State Department officials disclosed tonight that Egypt had agreed to conditions of the Mutual Security Law that will enable the United States to continue economic and technical assistance to the Cairo Government under the Point Four program.

Agreement on Section 511 (B) of the law in effect means that Egypt pledges herself to certain general principles of freedom and security required of all recipients of United States economic or military aid.
