Egypt Tightens Controls On Shipping for Israel
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jan 26, 1954; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 3

Egypt Tightens Controls On Shipping for Israel

CAIRO, Jan. 25 (Æ)—Egypt ordered new controls today on ships passing through the Suez Canal enroute to the Red Sea's Gulf of Aqaba. The measures were aimed at tightening the Arab League's economic blockade of Israel.

The controls affect all ships bound through the canal for Aqaba, a Jordan port on the gulf near the Sinai peninusla.

The new measures will require all Aqaba-bound ships to:

1. Inform Egyptian authorities in the Suez Canal area of their destination.
2. Produce a certificate from Jordanian authorities that their cargoes are destined for Jordan.
3. Submit a detailed inventory of their cargoes.
4. Inform Egyptian authorities of the date when the ship enters the gulf.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.