EGYPT INDICTS 44 AS REDS
New York Times (1857-Current file); Feb 2, 1954; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 9

EGYPT INDICTS 44 AS REDS

Group Accused of Plotting to Overthrow Naguib Regime

CAIRO, Feb. 1 (UP)—Forty-four persons were indicted today and bound over for trial on charges of plotting to establish a Communist regime in Egypt.

In the group were sixteen students, fifteen workers, nine white collar employes, three journalists and a lawyer. They were accused of trying to incite revolution against the Government of President Mohammed Naguib.

The indictment said that as members of the "Democratic Movement for National Liberation" the group planned to wipe out the capitalist and employer class and set up a Russian-style "working class" society.

The defendants, who will be tried by the Supreme Military Court, also were accused of distributing leaflets calling General Naguib's regime "a military clique serving the ends of imperialism."

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.