Farouk Fights for Property

New York Times (1857-Current file); Feb 8, 1954; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002) pg. 5

Farouk Fights for Property

ROME, Feb. 7 (AP) — Former King Farouk of Egypt threatened tonight to take legal action against buyers of his "personal property," which is scheduled to be auctioned by the Egyptian Government this week. In a statement issued by his secretary, Farouk said his lawyers had advised him that "all sales of art objects and other personal property of the King and his family will be illegal."

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.