Egypt Eases Ship Curbs
New York Times (1857-Current file); Feb 9, 1954; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 8

Egypt Eases Ship Curbs

CAIRO, Feb. 8 (UP)—The Egyptian Government today announced relaxation of its "blacklist" regulations on foreign ships sailing to ports in Israel.

The Boycott Bureau informed shipping companies that merchant vessels would not be blacklisted hereafter for calling at Israeli ports if they did not touch Arab ports during the same voyage.

The restriction will not apply to cruise and tourist ships, which will be permitted to call at Israeli and Arab ports on the same trip.

The bureau also announced it was willing to consider requests to clear ships placed on the blacklist. The restrictions were imposed as a result of the Palestine war.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.