EBAN AGAIN ASSAILS EGYPT FOR BOYCOTT

Abba Eban, Israel's Ambassador to the United States, repeated here yesterday his attack on Egypt's boycott of Israel-bound shipping through the Suez Canal.

The diplomat spoke at a luncheon at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel arranged by the Labor Zionist Organization of America, the Pioneer Women and the Labor Zionist Committee for Israel Bonds. Mr. Eban received a scroll citing him for his efforts in "welding a strong bond of friendship between the democracy of the United States and the democracy of Israel."

In his address, Mr. Eban held that the Egyptian decrees of 1951 and 1953, which put a boycott on the shipping of all forms of Israeli products, were an imposition "upon the rights and interests of the United Nations and of all peaceful maritime powers."

A message from Governor Dewey said the United States would continue to give "its full moral and material support" to Israel because "we realize how important the stability, security and progress of Israel are to the development and peace of the Middle East and the free world." Other messages were received from Senator Irving M. Ives and Mayor Wagner.

Dr. Mahmoud Azmi, Egypt's representative on the United Nations Security Council, arrived yesterday by plane to participate in the Council session today. He will present the views of the Cairo Government on the protest of Israel against Egyptian interference with Israel-bound ships.
