$32,200 for Farouk's Snuff Box

New York Times (1857-Current file); Mar 12, 1954; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 3

$32,200 for Farouk's Snuff Box

CAIRO, Egypt, March 11 (UP) —A famous jewelry concern of Rome bought back for $32,200 today a diamond-encrusted snuff box it had sold to former King Farouk several years ago. The turquoise-blue box with gold mounts was made in Berlin in the workshops of Frederick the Great, either as a gift or for his own use.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.