TALK WITH EGYPT ASKED BY ISRAEL

Emergency Inquiry by Mixed Body Sought in Clash of Troops on Border

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

TEL AVIV, Israel, March 28—Israel has requested the United Nations Truce Supervision Organization to convoke an emergency meeting of the Israeli-Egyptian Mixed Armistice Commission, an army spokesman said tonight.

The meeting was requested to discuss the border clash near Kisufim along the Gaza strip on March 25, when one Israeli soldier was wounded and another captured by Egyptians, according to Israeli sources.

Israel's request for the meeting indicated it was the intention of the Government to maintain cooperation with the Governments of Egypt, Syria and Lebanon in the Mixed Armistice Commissions. Relations with the Israeli-Jordanian Mixed Armistice Commission were ruptured last week after the United Nations chairman abstained on an Israeli motion censuring Jordan for the massacre of eleven bus passengers in the Negev March 17.

Tonight in its weekly report on Arab infiltrations the army said there were ten clashes with marauders during the week ended March 25. One infiltrator was killed and two were arrested, the report said. An unspecified number of cattle thefts and illegal crossing of armistice lines to graze cattle were also reported.
