Egypt Ignores Order
Special to The New York Times.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Apr 2, 1954; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2
pg. 8

Egypt Ignores Order

Special to The New York Times.

CAIRO, April 1—Egypt today ignored an order of the Egyptian-Israeli truce commission to free an Israeli soldier seized March 25 on the Egyptian side of the truce line near Gaza.

Col. Mahmoud Riad, director of Palestine Affairs for the Egyptian Army, said the soldier would not be returned to the Israeli authorities until an Egyptian complaint on the border violation was heard by the special committee presided over by Gen Vagn Bennike, chief United Nations observer for the Arab-Israeli armistice agreements.

According to Colonel Riad's account, Israeli forces committed "aggression" on the Gaza strip a week ago and one of the soldiers was captured.

Although his wording suggested that there had been hostilities, reports from the area indicated that the border crossing had been a casual one and that the soldier had been arrested rather than "captured."

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.