BIG POWERS WARNED ON APPEASING ARABS
New York Times (1857-Current file); Apr 4, 1954; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 20

BIG POWERS WARNED ON APPEASING ARABS

Moshe Shapiro, Israel's Minister of Welfare and Religious Affairs, said last night that efforts by the major powers to appease the Arab states constituted "a dangerous error of global strategy."

The leader of the Hapoel Hamizrachi party, a religious-labor group, spoke at the opening of the first national conference of American Zionist-Orthodox groups at the Statler Hotel.

"The recent uprisings in Egypt and Syria do not mark the end of the widespread political and social instability in the Arab world." Mr. Shapiro said, "Israel wants peace, but not this dubious peace.

"It is difficult to understand how the passion among Arab leaders for a 'second round' against Israel, blared forth unceasingly on Arab radios, in Arab newspapers and in Arab public statements, will be quenched by providing them with substantial quantities of modern armaments."

Rabbi Irving Miller, chairman of the American Zionist Council, said that "religious Jewry has every reason to take pride in the role it has played in the establishment and the building of Israel."

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.