CAIRO JUNTA ALERTED

Group Holds All-Night Talk Behind Heavy Guard

Special to The New York Times.

CAIRO, Wednesday, April 28—Egypt's ruling military Junta held an all-night session last night behind a heavy, extraordinary guard of troops in battle-dress manning anti-tank guns.

There was no indication of the threat that caused the Junta to order perhaps 100 soldiers with light automatic weapons and six medium-caliber anti-tank guns to surround the Army headquarters at Koubbeh, beginning at 11 last night.

Lieut. Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser, the Premier, canceled a regular meeting of the ten-man Revolution Command Council at Gezira Island headquarters, and summoned his colleagues to the Army headquarters instead.
