Cairo Confirms Bid for Fath

Special to The New York Times.

CAIRO, May 11—The prosecutor general's office confirmed today that Egypt had requested Lebanon to permit the extradition of Mahmoud Abul Fath, owner of the suspended Cairo daily Al Misri. Mr. Fath was convicted in absentia last Tuesday along with his brother Hussein, Al Misri's publisher, of attempting to corrupt the Government and of spreading abroad propaganda hostile to Egypt's ruling army junta.
