JORDAN AND EGYPT ACCUSED BY ISRAEL

Special to The New York Times.

JERUSALEM, May 23—Four cases of violence on the Jordanian border and one in the demilitarized zone facing Egypt were reported tonight by the Israeli Army.

An announcement said that at 4:45 A. M. today two shots fired from the Jordanian sector of Jerusalem resulted in the wounding of an Israeli woman. Israel also charged the kidnapping of a 16-year-old Arab boy from the Israeli town of Tira as he walked along the border near the Jordanian town of Tulkarm.

It was charged that a man operating a harvester at the communal settlement of Bohan was fired on from Jordan. A freight train from Tel Aviv to Haifa was reported to have been shot at two miles south of Tulkarm.

Friday night, the army reported, Bedouins dwelling in the demilitarized zone were attacked by twenty men who beat five of the Bedouins and stole livestock and four rifles.

The army denied a report published in Jordan that attackers from Israel threw grenades into the village of Safi last week.
