EGYPT AWAITS NEW PLAN
Special to The New York Times.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jun 29, 1954; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002) pg. 4

EGYPT AWAITS NEW PLAN

Officials Decline to Comment on U. S.-British Report

Special to The New York Times.

CAIRO, June 28—The Egyptian Government is expecting information tomorrow on proposals to settle the Anglo-Egyptian dispute over sovereignty in the Suez Canal area reported to have been formulated at the Eisenhower-Churchill talks in Washington.

Foreign Ministry officials were questioned about a report in The New York Times that Prime Minister Churchill and President Eisenhower had agreed to support a proposal for a complete British withdrawal from the Suez base in two years if Egypt would make the base available again in the event of a Soviet attack on any Middle East state.

The Egyptian officials said no such proposal had been received.

Although United States and British embassy spokesmen refused to comment on the reported proposal Jefferson Caffery, United States Ambassador, and Sir Ralph Stevenson, had a long conference.

Later a United States official said informally "it looks as if the Egyptian case will be settled before long" but he refused to elaborate.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.