AID TO ARABS FEARED
Special to The New York Times.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Nov 8, 1954; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002) pg. 13

AID TO ARABS FEARED

Mizrachi Women Urge U. S. to Get Peace Commitment

Special to The New York Times.

ATLANTIC CITY, Nov. 7—The major women's Zionist group in this country urged President Eisenhower tonight to withhold economic or military aid from the Arab nations until they had made a formal commitment to negotiate peace with Israel.

The action was taken at the opening session of the nineteenth annual convention of the Mizrachi Women's Organization of America.

In a telegram to the President the group expressed fear that the recent United States aid grant to Egypt "may wrongfully be interpreted by the Arab League as American approval of the avowed Arab intention to seek a second round against Israel."

The organization's annual America-Israel Friendship Award was given to Bruce McDaniel, first director of the United States aid mission in Israel.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.