EGYPT RECALLS ENVOY
Special to The New York Times.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Nov 14, 1954; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 38

EGYPT RECALLS ENVOY

Action on Aide in Syria Held Sign of Deteriorating Ties

Special to The New York Times.

CAIRO, Nov. 13—Egypt today recalled her Ambassador to Syria, Maj. Gen. Ali Naguib, brother of President Mohammed Naguib, for the stated purpose of consultations.

The recall is regarded here, however, as an indication of the deterioration in relations between Egypt and Syria, with a possible bearing on the status of President Naguib.

Al Akbar, one of Cairo's major dailies, charged today that the Syrian Government of Premier Faris el Khoury was winking at activities by political refugee members of the Moslem Brotherhood directed against Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser.

Al Akbar also gave prominence this morning to testimony of Hindawi Duweir, one of those being tried for the assassination attempt on Premier Nasser, that the Moslem Brotherhood was "always in touch with Mohammed Naguib through Hassan el Hodeiby," supreme guide of the brotherhood.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.