EGYPT REASSURES SUDAN ON NAGUIB
Special to The New York Times.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Nov 22, 1954; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 9

EGYPT REASSURES SUDAN ON NAGUIB

Delegation to Cairo Accepts Ousting and Gets Pledge of No Further Action

Special to The New York Times.

CAIRO, Nov. 21—Egypt has made her peace with the Sudan over the ousting a week ago of President Mohammed Naguib, according to statements tonight by a special Sudanese delegation and Maj. Salah Salem, Minister of National Guidance and Sudanese Affairs. The delegation met Major Salem and Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser.

In an interview, the leader of the Sudanese delegation, Mohammed Nur ed-Din, Deputy Premier and Minister of Public Works, said the Egyptian Government had informed the Sudan's governing National Unionist party of the decision to depose General Naguib a few hours before it was done.

General Naguib, half Sudanese himself and very popular in that country, was a major influence in the formation of the party two years ago from a group of pro-Egyptian splinter parties.

"We are not interested in the evidence against Naguib," Mr. Nur ed-Din said. "We are interested in whether or not he is guilty. But we want to safeguard him. The Government explained to us that it was unwilling to release him from house arrest because of the risk someone may kill him and create disturbances in Egypt. But we have received assurances Naguib will not be interrogated or tried and that no further action will be taken against him."

General Naguib was relieved amid public allegations by the Government that he was implicated in a Moslem Brotherhood plot to assassinate the entire Government.

In an official statement, the Sudanese delegation said:

"We have been given a detailed account of the situation and are now fully convinced General Naguib's relief from office was an inevitable measure which was primarily motivated by the higher interests of Egypt, which could not otherwise be safeguarded."

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.