Egypt's Complaint Rejected Anew
Special to The New York Times.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Nov 26, 1954; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 14

Egypt's Complaint Rejected Anew

Special to The New York Times.

TEL AVIV, Israel, Nov. 25—A special committee of the Egyptian-Israeli Mixed Armistice Commission upheld today the commission's resolution of last Friday, rejecting Egypt's complaint in the Bat Galim case. But the committee decided to delete a clause stating that the complaint was "unfounded."

An Israeli Foreign Ministry spokesman in Jerusalem said later that the Security Council now had an open road to proceed with discussion on an Israeli complaint against Egyptian interference with shipping in the Suez Canal. Council debate was adjourned last month to permit the Mixed Armistice Commission to complete an on-the-spot investigation.

The issue arises from Egyptian seizure of the Bat Galim, a 500-ton freighter with a crew of ten, in the Gulf of Suez Sept. 28. Egypt complained that the sailors had sunk a fishing vessel with gunfire.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.