22 SEIZED IN EGYPT

18 Accused of Pushing Plot to Overthrow Government

CAIRO, Saturday, Dec. 18 (Reuters)—Egyptian policemen arrested eighteen members of outlawed Moslem Brotherhood early today. Those seized were alleged to have taken a secret oath to carry on the organization's "message" after the hanging of six of their leaders for trying to overthrow the Government.

They also were charged with having distributed secret funds to the families of the hanged men, scores of their followers sentenced to prison and hundreds of others held in detention camps.

More arrests are expected to follow.

Yesterday Egyptian policemen arrested four persons on charges of having engaged in Communist activities.
