U. N. Latin Bloc Asks Restraint in Case of 13 Israelis

Special to The New York Times.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Dec. 17—The Latin-American countries at the United Nations decided today to appeal to Egypt to exercise a "restrained attitude" in the trial of thirteen Israelis in Cairo on charges of spying for Israel.

The group's president, José Vicente Trujillo of Ecuador, is expected to consult here tomorrow with the Egyptian delegation to pass on the group's observation that world Jewish opinion was highly inflamed over the trial.

Israel has said the trial was based on "fabricated evidence" and was being used to justify Egypt's detention of an Israeli ship trying to pass through the Suez Canal.
