CAIRO PUSHES SPY CASE
Special to The New York Times.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Dec 20, 1954; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 3

CAIRO PUSHES SPY CASE

Witness Says He Was Told to Attend Espionage Course

Special to The New York Times.

CAIRO, Dec. 19—The trial of thirteen persons accused of espionage for Israel continued before a military tribunal today with testimony by Meyer Zaafaran, one of the defendants. Two of the thirteen have left Egypt and are being tried in absentia.

Mr. Zaafaran testified he was to organize Jewish immigration from Egypt to Israel and that Abram Dar, alias John Darling, alleged ringleader who was said to be an Israeli Army officer, instructed him to attend espionage and wireless courses in Israel.

Philip Herman Nathanson testified yesterday that he had been taught arson and wireless techniques in Israel and France and that the ring planned widespread incendiarism and assassinations during the celebrations July 23 of the second anniversary of the overthrow of the monarchy. The defendants were arrested earlier in July.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.