CAIRO DOOMS 5 FOR PLOT

Links Military Personnel to the Moslem Brotherhood

CAIRO, Dec. 28 (Reuters)—Egypt sentenced five members of the armed forces to death today for taking part in a Moslem Brotherhood conspiracy to overthrow the Government. At the same time the regime arrested six Jews, including a woman, on charges of Communist and Zionist activity.

The death sentences on the military personnel were handed down by a People's Tribunal as a result of a major comb-out of members of the fanatical brotherhood.

In addition, the court today handed down sentences ranging up to life imprisonment on twenty-four other members of the armed forces charged with being implicated with the brotherhood.

Those sentenced to death before a firing squad were: Major Salah Shadi, described as the "mastermind" of the Moslem Brotherhood's secret cells in the police force; Navy Lieut. Said Balbaa, Able Seaman Mahmoud Shukry, Flight Lieut. Mohammed El-Shinnawi and Pvt. Abdel Wahab Sharkawi of the military police.
